Orange signed an agreement on access to Tauron's fiber-optic network

by S.K.

Orange Polska informed of entering into cooperation with an electricity supplier – Tauron. While relying on the fiber-optic network rolled out by Tauron, on the basis of its power line grid, Orange Polska hopes to expand the coverage of its fiber-optic network by reaching more than 200 thousand households in southern Poland (in Lower Silesia, Silesia and Małopolskie (Cracow) provinces).

Earlier Orange signed cooperation agreements with other wholesale operators , including Inea and Nexera.

Orange also informed that its services provided via fiber-optic network are now available to over 5 million households, c. 20% of which constitute networks available through cooperation with other operators.

Investments in fiber-optics not only via a joint venture with APG

by ZIU

Orange Polska intends to roll out most of its fiber-optic network, which is expected to cover 1.7 million households by 2025, via the recently established Światłowód Inwestycje SPV.

Additionally the operator will continue network construction as part of the Digital Poland Operational Programme as well as, to a small extent, by increasing the density of its existing network.

At the end of June Orange Polska will present its strategy. In the opinion of “Parkiet” business daily the strategy will present in more detail the operator’s network construction plans.

Moreover, Orange entered into agreements for wholesale access to other companies’ network infrastructure. The most recent contract of this type was concluded with Tauron power group.
